

Folk Dance Australia Inc. (FDA)

presents a 'ZOOM' workshop with Caspar Bik teaching dances from Georgia, France and other countries

Sunday 3rd December, 7pm – 9pm, (AEDT)

Please register by Friday 1st December

Caspar Bik was born in 1990 in the Netherlands. He has been an active dancer from a young age within groups who represent the Dutch dances as well as groups who show an international repertoire. He has been specializing in folk dances from countries around the Black Sea. His most recent research was in Georgia where he trained with professional ensemble "Erisioni" and travelled through the country to experience the variety and beauty of Georgian dance, song and music

Caspar is looking fwd to presenting his first ever workshop to Australian Folk dancers.
